

My name is Kyle Slaski. I was a founding father (#10) of Tau Lambda chapter, Kean university in NJ. We also had to get $$$ for the same stuff you do.

fundraising ideas: (take or leave em, but let me know what you tried and if it worked)

1. nfl 2000 playstation tournament in someone's room at dorms. charge $20 a person- they pick a team (only from real NFL) and play entire season. winner after end of season gets 1/2 of registration, other 1/2 goes to chapter. works with basket ball and baseball games too (but make it 1/2 season or some krap)

2. sell raffle tickets for a $50 book voucher. make ticket $1 and sell to everyone. I donate the $$ to my chapter for this, but they give (free) raffle tickets to freshies during rush -its a good way to meet the new freshies.

3. rent a brother night. get all sororities together and raffle off the willing brothers for as much as possible. make strict rules on what these broads can and can't do - your chapter needs to decide this. if some sororities have fat broads,...

4. see if you can sponsor a bar. might not be possible by you, try and negotiate a $1 per person you bring in. Its a cool place to hang even if only the brothers go and the chapter will get $1 from each of you for partying together.

5. get new guys to sell blow pops, esp to girls - they look cute with lolipops :) 0.25 each, go to wholesale club and buy a big box, can make at least $7 a box .

To get money for the banquet, create something like a year book/program for RCB. you will need to get these printed up (see if someone knows somebody that can do this cheap? maybe not) You have to give each store that buys an program (its some legal BS so you can't get in trouble).

Sell advertisements in the front and back pages. We charged $25 for 1/4 page, $50 for 1/2 page, and $100 for full page. $200 for back cover. Get girls to put in adds, they get all emotional when they see krap like that in print...get your parents to sponsor...get clubs from school to sponsor 9 BS them into giving $$$)

I raised over 300 myself when I had to do it. well I gotta get to work, my boss keeps coming in and bothering me, good luck , hope this helps have a happy holidays,

Yours in the bond,

Snorkel
