

IT WASN'T ME?

I made a decision back in the past,
To join a fraternity or sorority at last.
The decision, I made was from my heart,
Time has passed; I'm not doing my part.
What happen between now and then?
Was, I committed or just wanting to fit in?
Oh!!!! My organization is the best,
LOOK, I still wear the letters on my chest.
What have I done to help it grow?
Pay dues, community service, meeting, mentoring.....NO.
I am just a member who's on the inactive roll, has my organization moved forward,
"Hell, I don't know."
What has happen to the fire in me?
Don't pay my dues, but wear the letters you see,
My house, office and car have it all, cups glasses, boards, banners, key changes and more.
I have grown and time has changed,
I have a bond with those on my line. (Only)
Those are true brothers and sister you see.
Where I am now, they don't understand me,
Don't have time for those games.
Furthermore, what can "They" do for me?
I have a family, job and business you see.
Yes, I made a promise on that day,
Would hold high the aims, never to stray.
Your organization is dying, yes because of you.
Will you be to busy for the funeral too?
There will come a time when your children will say.....
Mom/dad what happen to the organization you once belong to?
What will you tell them as tears swell in your eyes?
Will it be the truth or some small lie?
Just tell them it died....."Because you were to busy to be Involved."
