

The Greek That's Written There

It makes little difference
The size of your pin
Whether it's large or small,
And if it's plain
Or brilliant with jewels
Is of no concern at all,

But the vows that you took
Along with your pin,
Have you worn them constantly?
Quietly, deep in the heart
Where no one looks to see?

Have you touched the stars?
You reached for once
In your own small
Piece of the sky?
Have you striven for?
The honorable,
The beautiful and the high?

What difference then
The shape of the badge,
Be it
Diamond or quill or square
The important thing is
How much do you live?
The values of the pin you
Chose to wear?
